

ALASKA SOLID WASTE SUMMIT and Technology Showcase

Call for Vendors

Deadline for application: February 15, 2019

This is the first annual summit focusing on rural Alaska solid waste issues and solutions. The event will be held on March 19-21, 2019 at the Marriott Downtown in Anchorage, AK. Vendors will have exhibitor table space available during the two days of breakout sessions and the third day time available to showcase your solid waste technology to summit participants. This is a great opportunity to promote your business or organization to rural Alaska solid waste management! The summit agenda focuses on solid waste management: financial, operations, recycling as well as innovative technologies and equipment.

Audience profile

The target audience includes environmental program managers and staff, administrators and landfill operators in rural Alaska communities working towards sustainable solid waste management programs.
